WITH COOPER UNION ALUMNI

THEO STEWART-STAND (A '99)

YARMINIAH ROSA (A '12)

ISAAC NICHOLS (A '12)

TUESDAY, MARCH 12 | 12:00 PM

ALUMNISPAC | STUDENT RESIDENCE | 3RD FLOOR

Ventures: Material and Meaning

Theo Stewart-Stand will present works and discuss his small design company Cockroach and Company, which focuses on developing environmentally progressive design through the use of innovative materials and processes. Works include an ultra-efficient lamp that reflects light on two sides.

Yarminiah Rosa creates works through her enterprise Purpose, an accessory line dedicated to transforming ordinary objects into absolutely gorgeous accessories. Purpose hopes to empower its supporters with its message of creativity, motivation, and its will to make something out of nothing.

Isaac Nichols is the artistic director for a small design firm in the city. He will speak on the gesture of design, cohesion, and persona as they relate back to the marketplace.
